Dear Leon,

I hope this email finds you well.

Thank you for your consideration and the kind invitation to part of this visiting fellowship programme in Leiden. I am only glad to accept it even though I have a scheduling issue and request due to my recent election as [5.1.2e] [5.1.2e] April and May will be very busy months for me, and it would be extremely difficult and risky to be away from campus due to the period being the final exam season. I have almost 3,00 students taking the final exams, and anything go seriously wrong in my absence. I therefore wonder if you and our colleagues in Leiden would allow me to hold the fellowship in July instead.

It is an honour for me to have been selected for this fellowship, and I look forward to using it effectively to build stronger and richer relationships with our colleagues in Leiden. My current position as [5.1.2e] will allow me to enable a lot more connections between colleagues in Rabat and Leiden.

Kind regards,

[5.1.2e]

Dear [5.1.2e]

I hope that you are doing well.

Last week I had a meeting with the [5.1.2e] of the African Studies Centre in Leiden, [5.1.2e] We could arrange that each of you could stay for a month in Leiden for research, to prepare further collaboration with colleagues in Leiden. We have the months of April and May 2024 available. NIMAR and ASCL will provide you with a ticket, lodgings, health insurance, and a monthly allowance which will contribute to your expenses.

For more information on the programme please visit:

I hope that this offer is of interest to you. Please let me know at your earliest convenience whether you could accept our invitation and during which of the two months each of you would like to stay in Leiden. There is no need for a formal application since you have already been selected. But at some point, we would appreciate to receive a short description of your research plan.

With best wishes and looking forward to seeing you soon again,

Léon
