Dear [redacted] 5.1.2e

You will receive all required documents for your visa application from me, as you are a fellow of the ASCVL. However, I do not know if you can apply for a new visa if the old one is still valid. So you may have to wait until the old visa is no longer valid.

Best,

Dear 5.1.2e

I would like to express my sincere gratitude and formally confirm my acceptance of the research grant you have awarded me, as well as all the attached conditions. I am also at your full disposal should you need any further information. Moreover, my Schengen visa (France) expires in July 2025, and I assume that I will need to apply for a new visa. In this regard, I am wondering whether your email is sufficient to begin the application process, or if I will need an official document.

Best regards.
