Dear all,

In just one week, it's happening—the program kicks off in Marrakesh! Here's the latest information you'll need:

Program booklet
Attached, you'll find the updated participants list and daily program, including daily start times and an overview of the activities we'll cover each day. Many sessions will involve working in groups, with teams that mix both Moroccan and Dutch colleagues.

What to bring
Notebooks and other materials will be provided, though you're welcome to bring your laptop.

Please remember to pack comfortable shoes, as we'll be heading out to the main square several times. Thankfully, we're expecting sunny weather and temperatures between 25 and 30 degrees.

Welcome drinks - Sunday, November 10th
For those interested, we've planned an informal and lowkey get-together on Sunday, November 10, in the evening. This will be a great chance to get to know each other over a drink. If you can join us, the place is at the Riad Touhfa Kasbah Marrakesh, and you're welcome from 8:00 PM onward.

Contact details
Could you please send me your phone number and the name of your accommodation for these three days? Additionally, we'd appreciate having the contact details of a close friend or family member for emergency purposes. You can provide this information by sending me an email.

Finances
A quick reminder: If your organization is unable to cover your travel and accommodation expenses, or if you're a freelancer, you can apply for a €250,- reimbursement through DutchCulture. Please find the link here.

Finally, this program is part of a broader collaboration with Morocco, initiated by the Dutch Embassy in Rabat. Attached is an article (in French) recently published in TelQuel magazine, which highlights this collaboration, and also mentions the Moroccan Dutch Knowledge Exchange Program!

In case of any questions, please feel free to reach out to me.

See you all next week!

Best,
