

Challenging Myths and Exceptions

What is happening in Yemen?

[Wednesday, 28 February, Schouwburgstraat A0.06 17:15-19:00]

Yemen's attacks on ships in the Red Sea have recently attracted the attention of the world. The experts on this panel will tell us more about the recent developments, provide us with context of the war and humanitarian crisis in Yemen since 2015 and discuss obstacles as well as ways forward to peace and justice. The speakers are intimately familiar with the situation in Yemen and will draw attention to the impact of conflict on the population.

Speakers

5.1.2e

is an expert on the Yemen conflict.

5.1.2e

5.1.2e

5.1.2e

5.1.2e

5.1.2e

5.1.2e

Changes to the programme or its locations will be announced online.

More information on the teach-in series: <https://bitly.ws/3doWc> and here

Open to all Leiden University students and staff (LU card may be required).

331261 questions or suggestions may be directed to leiden.teachin@gmail.com.

